CREDIT REFERENCE SEARCHING AND REPORTING

The Bank may make searches against you on the records held by credit reference agencies. When such a search is made the credit reference agencies will keep a record for a period (usually for a year) that the search has been made. The Bank may also provide information to credit reference agencies concerning this application and the manner in which the Account is conducted. For this the Bank requires your consent. Please note that if you do not consent the Bank will not be able to consider your application. You have the right at any time to request from any credit reference agency a copy of any "personal data" within the meaning of the Data Protection Act 1988 (as amended or re-enacted from time to time) that such a credit reference agency hold about you (for which they may charge a small fee) and to have inaccuracies in that information corrected. I/We authorise the Bank to carry out credit reference searches against me/us. I/We acknowledge that such credit reference agencies will record that such a search has been made and disclose that fact to their members for a period of a least one year. I/We also authorise that Bank to provide information concerning this application and the conduct of the Account to credit reference agencies
